The Mountain Astrologer

Issue #162 • April/May 2012

Feature Articles

21 Occupy Wall Street: People over Profit

by Jessica Murray

At long last, the 99% is making itself heard! Last September, the Uranus–Pluto square came within one degree of exactitude and Occupy Wall Street was born. Here's an astrological take on the movement.

26 The Seven Most Common Mistakes Made by Astrologers

by Ray Grasse

This long-time astrologer warns those who are just setting up a practice — and those who have been practicing for a while — about the perils and pitfalls of working as an astrological counselor.

29 Earthquake Astrology

by Bruce Scofield

This article is a primer on earthquakes and the history of predicting tremors using celestial phenomena. There are many earthquake triggers, so prediction is not a simple matter, but this author makes the subject quite accessible.

35 The Big One

by Helmut Aden

Subtitled "Uranus–Pluto and the Risk of a Devastating Earthquake in the United States," this article uses astrology to suggest possible time frames for a major earthquake along the San Andreas Fault, which geologists say is long overdue.

41 An Interview with Demetra George

by Dena DeCastro

This accomplished astrologer and author discusses her fervent interest in traditional astrology and how it came to be reintroduced into modern practice — and her contributions to the translation of ancient texts.

51 Vocational Astrology Simplified

by Greg Bogart

One of the most frequent and compelling questions that clients ask is, "What is my calling?" Here, an experienced astrological counselor offers a wealth of ways to find the answer in the chart.

61 Life Cycles

by Mavis Klein

As the transiting planets connect with their placements in the natal horoscope, so our lives — each in its own unique expression — reflect these patterns, from age 2 to 92.

66 Let's Get out of the Trap!

by Emma Kurent

For readers who are not familiar with the use of declination, here is a lively introduction to its role in both mundane and personal chart analysis.

77 Saturn and Guilt

by Kathy Rose

When natal Saturn forms stressful aspects to the Sun or Moon, the native's life is often permeated with guilt, which can manifest as excessive responsibility — or deliberate failure.
