Hi everyone!

Loads more new books for everyone this month, including the latest one from the wonderful Michael Lutin. See also our very own new release by the popular and prolific Kim Farnell - Flirting with the Zodiac. Enjoy!

ASPECTS

Robin Antepara - £12.99 + p&p

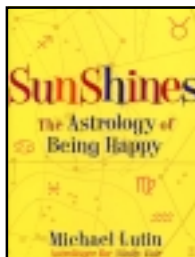

Conventional astrology teaches that soft aspects are desirable and hard aspects are difficult. Antepara moves beyond this and shows that every aspect is a valuable source of self-knowledge, providing insight into our strengths, talents, shadow issues and even life purpose. Another lovely edition to the 'Special Topics' range.

SUNSHINES

The Astrology of Being Happy

Michael Lutin - £12.95 + p&p

Vanity Fair's hip and wickedly funny columnist knows your naughtiest, darkest obsessions. Michael Lutin cleverly combines Sun sign astrology with the cycle of the lunar Nodes, which makes for unbelievably accurate and excellent reading for everyone. Can't recommend it highly enough.

A HANDBOOK OF MEDICAL ASTROLOGY

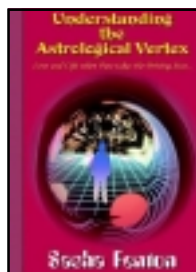

Jane Ridder-Patrick - £15.50 + p&p

At last this classic is back in print after years in the wilderness. Cited as 'A rare achievement', and 'An outstanding contribution to the field of medical astrology...essential reading' by Clare Martin, President of the Faculty of Astrological Studies, we welcome it back with open arms.

UNDERSTANDING THE ASTROLOGICAL VERTEX

Sasha Fenton - £7.99 + p&p

Takes you through the natal Vertex positions showing you when and how you are likely to become vulnerable and who is likely to cause you joy and pain. Also shows you how to spot when the Vertex will be activated by progression, transit, solar return or any other astrological event and what this is likely to mean.

RAPHAEL'S ASTRONOMICAL EPHEMERIS 2008

Edwin Raphael - £4.99 + p&p

DUE MAY

Yes - it's that time again! The world's longest-serving Ephemeris has been published every year since 1819. It has survived because it contains the most accurate calculations and information for the astrologer. It is 100% reliable.

PLANETARY CYCLES AT A GLANCE

Astrid Fallon - £6.50 + p&p

Seen from the astrological point of view, planetary cycles happen in a structured manner that affects history and evolution as well as our private lives. The author attempts here to synthesise their patterns with graphs that speak for themselves. Zodiac is tropical and geocentric. Time is G.M.T.

FLIRTING WITH THE ZODIAC

Kim Farnell - £14.50 + p&p

Covers the rise, fall and rise again of Sun sign astrology in the context of history. The author's distinct style has you laughing one minute and awe-struck the next. She delves into the lives of people such as William Lilly, Cheiro and Evangeline Adams and brings them to life in a way that will fascinate anyone. Compelling reading.
