The Clockwise House System

Jacques Dorsan (Edited by Wain Farrant and Robert Powell)

£20.00 plus postage

Traditionally, Western astrologers view the twelve houses in astrology in an anti-clockwise direction, the direction of the zodiac signs. This classic work argues, however, that we should view them in a clockwise direction. Jacques Dorsan was the leading pioneer of sidereal astrology in France. Using more than eighty sidereal horoscopes, this book illustrates Dorsan's clockwise house system. Most of the charts are from the original French edition, with many more added in this edition. The book embodies one of the most important astrological discoveries of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries.

Support your local bookseller!

We all know that the high street bookshop is becoming a rare commodity, because apart from being unable to compete on price they also cannot carry the millions of books that online sellers do. A new enterprise run by one of Europe's biggest wholesalers has been set up which not only supports them but it also provides you with an almost bottomless supply of books: enter The Hive. This website is designed for the general public, but the difference from 'other' online booksellers (no names mentioned) is that you nominate your favourite bookshop on the entry page and they receive a commission from everything you buy. Shop till you drop at hive.co.uk and do something good for the bookshops.
